

Planning Meeting for Pacific Cost-Benefit Analysis Initiative (P-CBA Initiative)

Facilitating Resilient Development in the Pacific:
Strengthening Capacity in the Use of Cost-Benefit
Analysis

CBA: Informing decision makers – investment/project options, proposal development, policy/strategy options

P-CBA: aims at supporting/establishing a cohort of officials/professionals in countries familiar with CBA applications – CBA doers and users

RMI – airport water management

0. Do nothing
1. Reline airport reservoir
2. Cover airport reservoirs
3. Repair distribution pipe
4. Improve efficiency of airport catchment
5. Expand runway catchment
6. Increase households with rainwater systems

How this planning meeting fits into the P-CBA process?

Scoping and Needs
Assessment
May – October
2013

P-CBA
Implementation
March 2014 –
Sept 2015

Design phase
Oct 2013 –
March 2014

Purpose of the meeting

1. Further assess country needs
2. Inform the overall design of the P-CBA initiative
3. Define preliminary country workplans and
4. Identify further support by donors and development partners.

Expected Outputs of the meeting

1. Draft Country Workplans (country teams, in-country training - timing, resources, linkages with projects, sectoral policy processes)
2. Draft Programme Design Document (course content, delivery mechanism and sustainability strategy)
2. Funding opportunities for P-CBA identified.

Structure of the meeting:

1st day: Setting the baseline/situation analysis

- Intro and overview of P-CBA
- Country context, needs and expectations
- Ongoing initiatives on economic analysis

2nd day: Planning for P-CBA and country actions

- Discussing options: course content, delivery, sustainability
- Drafting country workplans

3rd day: Presenting results and discussing next steps

- Draft country work plans and programme design document
- Technical and financial support opportunities